KNOWLEDGE DELIVERY EVALUATION
IN E-LEARNING SYSTEMS

Adina Ileana UȚĂ
Anca ANDREESCU

Ph.D., professor, Academy of Economic Studies, Bucharest, Romania
adinauta@ie.ase.ro
Ph.D., lecturer, Academy of Economic Studies Bucharest, Romania
anca.andreescu@ase.ro

Abstract: The paper presents some aspects concerning the evaluation of e-learning systems, emphasizing in particular the tutor's role in such a training system and the evaluation of course materials' quality.

Keywords: Knowledge, E-learning, Evaluation, Distance Learning Education, Tutor, Course content

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

1. Association for Educational Communications and Technology - California. Design Guidelines and Consistency of Navigation Items.
http://www.coe.uh.edu/ courses/cuin7317 /interface_design.html
2. Olimpius Istrate- http://www.elearning-forum.ro/resurse/
3. http://www.worldwidelearn.com/elearning-essentials/
4. Rhonda Wynne, Learner Centred Methodologies, http://www.assetproject.info/learner_methodologies/introduction.htm